Jeffrey A. Davault was born April 9, 1960 in Norman, Oklahoma to Vernon S. Davault and Nancy Ellen (Blew) Davault. He passed away Sunday, January 7, 2024 in Norman, Oklahoma at the age of 63.

“ I met Jeffers within months of my moving to SF in 1989, we became like brothers very quickly. He supported my costuming aspirations and I supported his quest for the perfect apartment. We were both involved with the Golden Gate Men's Choir and sang at The Mint piano bar, we drank beer at The Eagle and The Pilsner, we ate too much McDonald's and not enough U-Lee potstickers. He watched me literally fall out of my seat watching A Tuna Christmas. We played hockey to visit Golden Gate Park or Pier 39. He threw me my only surprise birthday party (at 40) with a Beauty And The Beast theme. We survived taking our AIDS/HIV tests together when results took two weeks; we wept over the end of Longtime Companion. I was with him when he called home to,learn Caitlyn had been born. Decades later, he and husband Joe were the first to pick me up when Life hit the fan. Rest well, Gentle Soul; your big heart and big laugh are always with me.

“ I met Jeff in 1998, we were both designers at Howard Brothers Florist in OKC. He was an unbelievable artist in floral design. Every piece he designed was fascinating & unique. What amazing talent! We quickly became good friends. He was one of those people who not only listened to you, but actually cared about what you were saying.

I gave him a couple of Santa's to add to his collection, I loved that he named them all!

Through the years I ran into he & Joe at Hobby Lobby & Lowes shopping. I loved his bear hugs! I'm so glad we stayed in touch on FB messenger.

He loved Joe, & all his family & friends dearly. I'm so sorry for your great loss. You all will be in my thoughts & prayers in the days & weeks ahead. I can't believe he is gone, but he left precious memories with all of us. May God grant you peace & comfort as you grieve the loss of this great man.

I love you my dear friend, Jody Holden

“ Jeffrey and I connect a few years ago after he remembered my maiden name from his childhood days in Cherokee, OK. It was quite a surprise but brought back lots of memories. “ My family has known Jeff since Vernon and Nancy met our parents Charles and Carolyn Davis at Goodrich Memorial Methodist Church in Norman in early 1960. The infamous story; repeated many times over the years to much hilarity and riotous laughter is that Nancy hit our father Charles in the head with Jeff while squeezing into the pew with her distended abdomen. Knowing this precious family has been one of the greatest joys of our lives and Jeff a sparkling part of that joy.

“ Back when I had Facebook messenger, Jeff and I spoke back and forth about people we knew, mutual friends, and Okemah. He spoke so highly of my mom who had owned a beauty salon in Okemah. I appreciated his kind words.
I'll miss Jeff's humor and wisdom.
My prayers are with Joe, his many friends and his family members.
